

Overview of the authorities you can address to enforce claims in Austria

Claim to be enforced	Which authorities do I have to approach?	What can I achieve?
Compliance with minimum wage regulations	Financial police Construction Workers' Holiday and Severance Pay Fund (BUAK) CWSD Competence Centre at the Vienna Regional Health Insurance Fund District Administration Authority	Employer is fined for paying too little remuneration Employer is motivated to pay due remuneration
	Labour and Social Court	Recover the remuneration due
Entitlement to full remuneration in the event of illness or accident or when otherwise prevented from working for justified reasons , or to annual leave pay	Financial police Construction Workers' Holiday and Severance Pay Fund (BUAK) CWSD Competence Centre at the Vienna Regional Health Insurance Fund District Administration Authority	Employer is fined for paying too little continued remuneration
	Labour and Social Court	Recover the remuneration due
Claims in cases of unlawful termination of employment	Labour and Social Court	Withdrawal of employment relationship termination and the remuneration due is recovered, or compensation for termination of employment
Compliance with working time regulations	Labour Inspectorate District Administration Authority	Employer is motivated to comply with maximum working hours Employer is fined for failing to comply with maximum working hours
Compliance with employee protection regulations (to protect the lives, health and safety of employees at the place of work)	Labour Inspectorate District Administration Authority	Employer is motivated to ensure the protection of employees' lives, health and safety Employer is possibly fined for failing to comply with worker protection regulations

Compliance with regulations to protect young employees	Labour Inspectorate District Administration Authority	Employer is motivated to ensure the protection of young employees Employer is possibly fined for failing to comply with regulations to protect young employees
Compliance with regulations to protect employees during pregnancy and maternity protection period (Mutterschutz)	Labour Inspectorate District Administration Authority	Employer is motivated to ensure the protection of employees during pregnancy and maternity protection period Employer is possibly fined for failing to comply with regulations to protect employees during pregnancy and maternity protection period
Refusal or impeding of activities to verify pay levels	Financial police Construction Workers' Holiday and Severance Pay Fund (BUAK) District Administration Authority	Employer is motivated to allow verification of minimum pay levels